IN HONOR OF MR. JAMES YEARGIN.

The beautiful home of Mrs. Mary Baker was the scene of a very beautiful affair Wednesday evening, August 28, when Mrs. Henry Yeargin entertained a number of friends in honor of Mr. James Yeargin, of Kansas City, Mo. Music and dancing were indulged in until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Mrs. Yeargin was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Mack E. Burton and Mrs. Edward Church. Those present were Misses Annie Rucker, Mary Williams, Eudora McClelland, Mattie May Baker, Selena Baker, Messrs. James Yeargan, James Johnson, Major Peterson, Melvin Hayes, Mack E. Burton, Mesdames Mary Baker, William Kelly, Henry Yeargan, Edward Church, Jerry Goodwin, Lilburn Cosby, George Porterfield, Mr. Henry Greer and Mrs. Mack E. Burton.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Our town is still on a boom. Mrs. Annie McClellen, of Chattanooga, is visiting relatives here. Dr. H. A. Morton, who has been visiting his sick mother, Mrs. Lea Morton, has returned to Chicago. Mrs. Sarah Gossling, who for fifty years has been a resident of this place, will make her future home in Chicago.

Mrs. Nannie Davidson is on the sick list this week.

Miss Ellie Brown, one of the leading teachers of Bedford County, and a great church worker, was in town visiting home folks last week.

Miss Blanche Morton, organist for Scott Chapel M. E. Church, is missed by the members and friends of her church, her absence being caused by the illness of her mother.

Rev. E. M. Lawrence, B. Th., Superintendent of Missions, preached at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. T. H. Devol, of the A. M. E. Church, preached at the A. M. E. Church Sunday morning, and at the M. E. Church Sunday evening.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Jones, President of Turner Normal Institute, who has been touring the West in the interest of his school, has returned.

The new dormitory of the Turner Normal will be completed by the opening of the school September 23.

Scott Chapel M. E. Church is to be rebuilt very soon. The plan has been laid out and work will begin at once. Rev. J. H. Thompson is pastor.

Rev. E. M. Seymour and Wm. Underwood will leave next week for Washington, D. C., to attend the National Baptist Convention. They will also visit the Jamestown Exposition.

Rev. B. G. Gordon reports everything in readiness for his last quarterly conference which will convene here the ninth and tenth.

Shelbyville is in the midst of the biggest building boom it has ever experienced. Mechanics are at a premium. A new depot is being built, a number of fine houses and concrete side walks are being laid all over town.

The new Girl's Dormitory of Turner Normal Institute, is nearly completed. It will be ready by the opening of the fall term. Dr. J. A. Jones is again in town after an extensive trip through West Tennessee in the interest of the college. Several churches have donated whole suits of furniture to assist in fitting up the new building. The school opens Sept. 23.

The Colored Fair will be pulled off here Sept. 12-14.

Mrs. Annie Clayborn, of Chattanooga, is in town.

Mrs. Laura Ransom spent a few days at Tulahoma recently.

Mrs. Amanda Mitchel, of Chattanooga, formerly of this place, is here visiting friends.

Mrs. Emma Hutton is on the sick list.

Several new comers have recently appeared in town seeking locations on account of the advantage offered by Turner Normal Institute. Some of them have made purchases of homes.

Rev. Underwood, the new pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, is growing quite popular with the masses.

The A. M. E. Church, Rev. B. G. Gordon, pastor, is making great preparation for the Educational Rally, Sept. 15.

EBENEZER NOTES.

Miss Lillie Hall was able to attend the basket meeting at Nebo Sunday with her father.

Little Miss Niner Jenkins is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Temple Jennette.

Mr. Baxter Jenkins left for Chicago last week.

Miss Bettie Lusk left Tuesday to visit her aunt at Ridgeway.

Rev. N. Smith is a jewel in our church. The lecture that he gave in Sunday school Sunday morning will not be forgotten.

Miss Addie Sledge is able to be with us again.

NEW UNDERTAKING ESTABLISHMENT.

Nashville will soon have another first-class undertaking establishment. Mr. A. N. Johnson, formerly of Mobile, Ala., has rented quarters in the Boyd Building, and in a few days will open parlors that will be equal to any in the South. They will be complete in every detail.

Mr. Johnson will be prepared to give to the citizens of Nashville the best service possible. His offices are neat and inviting, all the furniture being of hardwood finish. There will not be a line of vehicles on the streets that will surpass his.

When a Globe representative called to see him he found a very busy man, but not too much so to stop and show him through the place. Mr. Johnson is affable, and it is a pleasure to talk with him on any subject. He is a man of considerable wealth and Nashville may well feel proud to have this energetic business man become one of her citizens.
